ABOUT THE CENTRE FOR SPECIALISATION IN CYBER LAW STUDIES

The Centre for Specialisation in Cyber Law Studies (CSCLS) of Symbiosis Law School Hyderabad (SLSH) is an in-house Centre established to focus on different aspects of cyber law through research, events and programmes. The Centre works with the aim of propagating the knowledge of rights and duties that a person needs to be aware of while navigating through the cyberspace.

The Centre for Specialisation in Cyber Law Studies (SLSH) makes it a point to provide the knowledge of cybersecurity not just to the students of law but to everyone possible in order to enable a future without despair caused by misuse of cyberspace.

ABOUT THE NATIONAL SEMINAR

Cyberspace is an ever-expanding arena of innovation and rapid technological development. The emergence of technological trends in cyber law and cybersecurity has secured momentum in the forms of digital currencies, machine learning & AI, quantum computing, Internet of Things (IoT), Augmented Reality and Virtual Reality (AR/VR), Metaverse, to name a few.

These trends also bring their fair share of predicaments; from privacy breaches and regulatory concerns to state sponsored targeted attacks and many other related issues and challenges.

This seminar aims to provide a platform to bring various stakeholders together to assess and discuss the current emerging technological trends in the field of cyber law and cybersecurity along with providing their unique insights through suggestions, predictions and recommendations arising out of these trends.

The outcome of this Seminar, along with deliberation on the present issues, would also be to facilitate a healthy channel of discussion to bring about a positive change for the betterment of society.

The National Seminar would also provide an excellent opportunity for the participants to put across their own views and exchange ideas in order to have a holistic understanding of the subject matter.

CENTRE FOR SPECIALISATION IN CYBER LAW STUDIES

A MESSAGE FROM THE CHIEF PATRON

We are delighted to announce that Symbiosis Law School, Hyderabad is organizing a one-day National Seminar on Emerging Technological Trends in Cyber Law and Cyber Space Regulation on 8th April 2023. With cyberspace being a constantly expanding domain of technical progress and invention, the emergence of technological trends in the field has developed rapidly.

These developments also present their unique plethora of challenges, ranging from data breaches and regulatory concerns to state-sponsored targeted cyberattacks and a slew of other difficulties and obstacles. We, as individuals and societies cannot be left defenceless. Cybersecurity is not just a mere technological concern but a tactical, legal, and social phenomenon with all of the complexities that go with it.

This seminar intends to provide a forum for various stakeholders to examine and debate current developing technology trends in cyber law and cybersecurity, as well as contribute their unique perspectives through proposals, future projections, and recommendations originating from these trends, thereby adding greater significance to this reality and affirming the same.

We are certain that the event discussions will be valuable to all attendees and will offer them a stage for exchanging knowledge about recent trends and breakthroughs in these fields. It will allow students and professors to engage with top-tier professionals to better understand how these new fields play vital roles in research and development. We commend the organisers on their initiative and give our best wishes for the Seminar's enormous success.

Dr. Santosh Aghav
Director, SLSH
