NATIONAL WEBINAR: IMPACT OF AI IN THE BANKING AND FINANCIAL SECTOR - BY CENTRE FOR BANKING AND FINANCE

The Centre for Banking and Finance (CBF) organised a national webinar on the topic 'Impact of AI in the Banking and Financial Sector' on 13th August 2022. The event commenced with a Welcome Note by Twinkle Bhandari, member, and Deputy Director Dr. Anuradh Binnuri, welcoming the 100+ participants and the chief speaker of the event, Mr. Utpal Chakraborty. Mr. Chakraborty is an eminent person in the field of discussion, holding the position of Chief Digital Officer at Allied Digital and was the former head of AI at YES Bank. Following this, the webinar then commenced. At the onset, the importance of technological advancement and its contributing factors to the smooth functioning of the banking and financial sector was explained. When the impending issue of citizens losing their employment owing to the advent of AI and the increased reliance on it was raised, Mr. Utpal recognised it and put forth that along with the present jobs diminishing, new avenues which challenge and require the application of human intellect more would come into existence. On the final leg of the webinar, the speaker addressed the questions raised by the participants. This was followed by the then Faculty In-Charge of CBF, Dr. Kishore Kumar, addressing the speaker and participants through the Vote of Thanks, along with the President of CBF, Siddhi Gupta.
