The resolution of dispute forms a large part of Justice delivery system. India has long tradition of resolving disputes through ADR methods viz. Nyaya Panchayat System. Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) allows parties in conflict to resolve their issue before going to court for filing a law suit. It also aims at providing mutually beneficial conclusion. At present there are about 30 million cases pending in Indian Courts and various enactments like Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 2015, Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 and recognition of Lok Adalats by Legal Services Authority Act, 1987 which aims to counter the situation. The need of the hour is to create awareness of ADR methods among Students and Professionals. Keeping the same in perspective, a one day workshop on Alternative Dispute Resolution Mechanisms was organized by Symbiosis Law School, Hyderabad and the Centre for Alternative Dispute Resolution (CADR).

The main objectives of the workshop were:

- To create awareness among students to ADR methods.
- To understand the primary Dispute Resolution Process and functions of various ADR mechanisms.
- To explain the strength and weakness of various ADR methods.
- To provide a platform for deliberations and discussion related to ADR.
- Describe and compare various legal implication of each method.

Rao, Vice President, of The society for Alternative Dispute Resolution & Education' (SADRE). The other members were: Mr. Ravindranath Duttaluru Tagore, Mr. Ravi Kolkar and Mr. Raj Reddy. Ali, President (SADRE) and lecture was carried forward by emphasizing about each mechanism by Mr. Satya S.K Mandiga, General Secretary (SADRE). The workshop fulfilled its aim of creating ADR awareness amongst the student community.
