7) Debate Competition:

Debate Competition was organized on 20th August 2018 by the AWAAZ Editorial Team. The competition was organized on the topic of censorship of films by the CBFC. It is considered that Movies are one of the strongest and far-reaching medium for communication and entertainment. CBFC has played an active role in controversies concerning the fundamental right of freedom of speech and expression. The censor board in recent times has become an orthodox watchdog that had not been so active for a few years. The reason, this practically dormant body suddenly came into the limelight is due to its recent questionable choices.

8) Faculty Development Programme:

Guest Speaker: Prof. Dr. George Richards, Associate Professor, Department of Criminal Justice, Anthropology, and Forensic Studies, Edinboro University Pennsylvania, USA.

The Faculty Development Programme was organised by Centre for Criminology and Criminal Justice and International Cell on 16th and 17th of August by Prof. George Richards of Edinboro University, Pennsylvania to the faculties of Symbiosis Law School, Hyderabad. The objective of this programme was to introduce the online teaching methods and an international style of teaching to the faculties here. The faculty were immensely profited from this program as many of the young professors who lacked in experience were able to assess themselves and further improve due to the critic and feedback received by them from Prof. George Richards. The older experienced faculties were also satisfied as they explored new teaching methods and evaluation procedures.
