

CENSURE DES MEDIAS

The day started with team CAMEL getting the rooms ready for the participants to barge in and put forth their arguments in front of our esteemed faculty judges. The four movies chosen for the preliminary round of the event “Censure Des Medias” were Bandit Queen, Kissa Kursi Ka, Black Friday and Paanch. The competition was to be held in 4 court rooms consisting of a council for the production house and a council for the CBFC who had to put their arguments forward. The competition began at 9:30 AM and each team was given 30 mins for the debate. Out of the seven teams that each court room had, the best counsel for production house and counsel for CBFC were chosen for the semifinals.

The second day of our event started with the semi final round for which 4 teams qualified. The competition was held in 2 court rooms with Mr. Amar Afaq and Mr. Hifajat Ali as the judges. The movies for the semifinals were Unfreedom and Aligarh. The best counsel for Production house and the counsel for CBFC in the court rooms qualified for the finals. The participants were then given time for the preparation of the final round. The judge for the final round was Dr. Krishna Rao Gandhe. The judge arrived and gave a dose of motivation to the participants and the audience. He was then felicitated by Prof. Rengaswamy Stalin.

The final round began with the participants arguing in full swing. The debate went on for two hours about the issues in the movie “Udta Punjab” and the winner for the best counsel for Production house and CBFC were decided.

With this, the two-day event finally came to an end and was an immense success.

We, the team CAMEL, thank all the faculty members and the participants for such an amazing response. We will be back with another exciting event.

PROPOSAL FOR GUEST LECTURE ON AIR AND SPACE LAW

30th -31st January 2019

Background:

Law relating to Air and Space Law is one of the emerging areas in Public International Law. Legal arena of Air and Space Law is still in nascent state in India. India is one of the largest civil aviation markets in the world and has great growth potential in the future years taking into account the population and other factor. Despite India's achievements in progressive space interventions, we lack a robust legal system. A legal framework is need of the hour in the light of outsourcing of satellite manufacturing in the wake of 'Make in India' scheme and expansion of private space industry ecosystem. India also faces legal dilemma in relation to space debris and other ecological perils relating to increased space exploration by India and other countries. The guest lecture aimed at giving the students an overview of law relating to Air and Space Law. In this context the guest lecture seeks to enlighten the students on various legal aspects relating to Air and Space Law.

About the Speaker:

2017-2022 Batch

❖ Background to the Guest Lecture

Students of the IVth semester have four credit course on Code of Civil procedure. Apart from regular class work a guest lecture was organised by SLSH for the students to have an insight into the implementation of various civil legislation.

❖ Names Of The Guest Faculty

1. Advocate Vivekananda

- The Resource Persons were felicitated with a memento and a Shawl by the students
- The pickup and drop of the guest was taken care of by SLSH.

There is no use of substantive law and rights without the existence of procedural law. The procedural law for the civil side is code of civil procedure. The execution proceedings are for realizing the fruits of the decree obtained in the court of first instance. The practical aspects of the procedural law can be better understood when put forth by a practicing advocate

Report on
GUEST LECTURE ON ELECTRICITY LAW AND POLICY

18th – 20th January 2019

Background:

In India energy law was prevalent in different forms for over a century and it deals with the management of energy resources. In the 1800s and early 1900s, there was a legislation to manage energy sectors such as coal and oil but even now energy law is considered to be a new area of law. Lawyers of Energy Law are often associated with major developmental programs and may work with companies and public utilities to handle taxation of energy, procurement of licenses and ownership rights for energy-rich land, adjudication regarding these energy rights etc. Energy Law in India is covered under Electricity Act, 2003. With the enactment of Electricity Act, India has taken its first step towards liberalization of energy sector. After the enactment of the legislation, there took place a paradigm shift in the energy sector and the energy market was thereupon open to the forces of competition through Open Access System, de licensing of generation, electricity trading, public private partnership etc.

In this context the Guest Lecture Series aims at giving a deeper understanding on Electricity laws and policy. It also helps the students to impart knowledge relating to the role, powers and functions of the regulators, courts, tribunals that have been and continue to be instrumental in developing and defining the energy sector (such as State Electricity Commissions, Appellate Tribunal for Electricity, Petroleum and Natural Gas Regulatory Board etc.).

About the Speaker:

His primary interest areas include Energy Laws, Telecommunications laws, Real Estate Laws, Biotechnology patent, Trade Secret and Technology Transfer & Patent Drafting. Currently he is teaching law of contract at undergraduate level, Energy Laws in India, Telecommunication laws in India and International Telecommunication Laws in LL.M. He has designed and developed new LL.M. specialization in Energy and Telecommunication Laws. In his experience of eight years of experience, he has also executed various charges like Dy. Examination Superintendent, Member of Area Advisory Board, Member of Research Committee, Member of Moot Court Society, Member of Placement Committee, In-Charge of Hostel, Mess-Committee and Faculty in charge of Non-Teaching Credit Courses. He was also member of Proctorial Board at University Level.

Dr. Yadav has authored twelve books and more than thirty papers. Besides organizing conferences, he has also presented research papers in national and international seminars and attended training programmes at prestigious institutes such as IIT-Kanpur, Administrative Staff College of India, Hyderabad, Central Power Research Institute, Bhopal and N.P.T.I. Faridabad. Recently, Satyam Law International, New Delhi has published his seminal work on “Law Relating to Trade Secret and Technology Transfer” is the first book to bring academic attention on Trade Secret and Technology Transfer in India. His previous book titled as “Energy Laws-Regulation in Electricity Sector and Protection of Consumer Rights-Regulatory Framework” has been foreword by Shri Piyush Goyal (Minister of State for Power, Coal and New & Renewable Energy) Government of India, published by Kamal Publishers, Delhi.

He is on the Board of editors of many national and international journals and member of various international professional bodies like Corporate Law Teachers Association, Sydney, Australia & the International Nuclear Law Association Brussels, Belgium. He was also member of Advisory Council of Centre for Child Protection in Rajasthan Government. He is life time member of Administrative Staff College of India, Hyderabad. ## REPORT ON GUEST LECTURE ON PHILOSOPHY OF LAW AND ETHICS

Background:

Law and morality are complementary to each other. Law is seasoned by morality as moral values are inherent for social transformation. As opposite to this notion there are theorists who believe law as consisting of minimum morality. According to Mark Tebbit “the issue that stands behind nearly every controversy in contemporary legal theory is the problem of how law is to be understood in relation to moral values.” The main reason behind introducing this course is to materialize traversing through various theories of law by putting morality at the focal point. At the same time the works of great philosophers of all times-from ancient, Christian and modern era from Socrates to Martha Nussbaum are examined in the light of their philosophy towards law and morality. The guest lecture discussed at length various legal theories and its relevance in a given social, political or moral set up. Indian legal thought is also given considerable relevance. In this context the guest lecture aims at giving the students a great learning experience on the relevance of philosophy towards law and legal theories.

SUMMARY OF THE EVENT

NecessiTea- Caffeinate your Confusion

AIM

The aim of the session conducted by CIPRA- Symbiosis Law School, Hyderabad was to create an avenue for young students to gather and learn from each other's experiences wherein the seniors mentored their juniors.

ABOUT NECESSITEA

As law, students there are many things that bother and confuse us. Team CIPRA decided to conduct an event where students who felt lost and disoriented could meet up and get their doubts cleared. NecessiTea was one such idea which aimed that informally interacting with students to help them navigate their way. CIPRA has always advocated for creativity, expression and learning, and NecessiTea tried to further this very purpose. Through a candid session with interested students from the first and second year (Annexure 1), NecessiTea tried to caffeinate all the confusion, and hopefully created bonds that will grow with mentorship, knowledge and enthusiasm.

OUTCOME

The overall session was a complete success and a definite win for Team CIPRA. About 40 students had gathered in the CIPRA cell room enthusiastically for the session. We had begun with an ice breaking session to lighten up the environment and to get the young minds going. This was followed by a detailed talk by the speakers on different topics such as Participation in various competitions and moots, Grades, Careers after Law college, Internships and etc.

The session was informal and interactive where anyone could get his or her doubts cleared. We had also provided the attendees with snacks, coffee and tea so that everyone could mingle and get to share their experiences. The session ended successfully with everyone having a great time.

P2P- 7th January

History of Constitutional Interpretation

The first P2P session of the semester by The Centre for Specialization In Business and Innovation was conducted on 7th January, 2019 from 6 pm to 7 pm at the Assembly Hall. The session was in the form of an informal talk and focused on the topic of “History Of Constitutional Interpretation”. the speaker for the session was Sudharsan Satalkar of the 2016-21 batch. The talk revolved around the phases of Constitutional Interpretation and its development. The session saw an attendance of about 20-30 students who actively participated in the discussions which followed. They were served with coffee and biscuits. The speaker was provided with Yummy’s Coupons and shall be presented with a digital certificate for the same.

The speaker was chosen on the basis of voluntary interest and a brief submitted by him regarding the topics. The students were highly interested in the session as the topic of constitutional law forms the basis of law school studies. The senior batches enthusiastically answered all the interactive questions posed by the students. The juniors paid rapt attention to the discussions and put forward their queries.

The speaker first began the session by questioning the audience about the working and interpretation of an unwritten constitution. He pointed out a judgement by Mensfield, J. which explained the prevalence of The Rule of Law and Principles of Natural Justice in deciding cases unless required otherwise in the presence of Statutes for the same. He traced the development of interpretation of the Constitution from the Literal Interpretation of the text to the Mischief Rule of interpretation. He was met with a variety of questions, disagreements and speculations from the audience, much of which only presented more points to explore. The purpose of the peer to peer sessions have always been to encourage discussion, dissent, debate and opinion sharing.

The session saw an in-depth discussion about landmark caselaws which have helped in the interpretation of the Constitution as we understand it today. The aim of the session was to seed an interest in the students about the creation of our Constitution and the value it holds. the session also saw the discussion of the KeshavanandBharti case on Article 21. The session ended with a brief discussion on which mode of interpretation was the best. The inputs for the same were provided by the students.

The students who participated provided the Centre with valuable and constructive feedback. The most notable aspect was the appreciation of the provision of coffee, and the informal atmosphere that was created. Upon taking into consideration the feedback provided last time, the Centre also decided to provide Yummy's coupons as incentive to those that were most active during the debate. All in all, the event was pleasant, informative and achieved the entire objective of peer to peer learning.

REPORT ON PRISON VISIT TO CHERLAPALLI CENTRAL JAIL

SUBMITTED BY:

LEGAL AID CENTRE

SYMBIOSIS LAW SCHOOL, HYDERABAD

SYMBIOSIS INTERNATIONAL (DEEEMED) UNIVERSITY, PUNE

UNDER THE GUIDANCE OF

DISTRICT LEGAL SERVICES AUTHORITY

RANGA REDDY DISTRICT COURT, L.B NAGAR

DATE AND LOCATION: 12th January, 2019; Cherlapalli Central Prison.

MEMBERS WHO VISITED THE PRISON:

1)	Chaitra Pavuluri
2)	Sriharshitha Chada
3)	Sridhruti Chitrapu
4)	N.Srinidhi Reddy
5)	Koustrika Bandyopadhyay
6)	Manogya Lakshmi
7)	Meghna Mishra
8)	Sreeja Gangishetti
9)	Nitya Tadakamalla
10)	Devashree Gupta
11)	Dr. Anuradha Binnuri (Faculty-in-charge)
12)	Col. Jayalakshmi (S.C.O.P.E in-charge)
13)	P. Kusheel Kumar (Advocate, DLSA, R.R Dist)

BRIEF INTRODUCTION:

Cherlapalli Central Prison is the largest Prison in Telangana and erstwhile united Andhra Pradesh confining more than 2000 Prisoners at any given point of time. There are many human oriented industries in this Prison. It employs prisoners in creamery agricultural, industrial sectors etc. The jail also houses a 15-20 acre vegetable farm, dairy farm and a 20 acres mango orchard in a semi-open prison attached. The produce from these facilities not just serves the requirements of the prison, but also is used for other prisons in the city. Steel and wooden furniture made in this Prisons manufacturing wing is known for durability and economy. Educational facilities are provided to the Prisoners through distance education system.

PURPOSE OF THE VISIT:

The purpose of the visit was to expand the knowledge of the students in practical aspects of prison related issues that would have been otherwise completely neglected. We hoped to give an insight to the prisoners on their rights. The aim was to provide them with any kind of legal aid that was needed and could be provided.

OUTCOME:

This helped the students learn about the working of the prison and lives of the prisoners. There are a lot of cases where the prisoners were unjustly held in prisons due to the neglect of their advocates and not taking right action at the right time. As the English jurist William Blackstone has said "it is better that ten guilty persons escape than letting an innocent suffer." It has taught the students not to go with the stereotype that all the prisoners are brutal and evil but to believe in the saying hate the sin not the sinner.

DAILY ROUTINE OF PRISONERS:

A prisoner's day starts at 6:00am. They have to perform their daily routine within an hour. Breakfast is served at 7:00am. After breakfast they get busy with their usual work. Lunch is served from 11:00 to 11:30am. After their lunch they can relax for a while, wash their clothes and then get back to their work again until dinner is served. All the barracks and block gates are closed at 6:00 P.M. Only in case of emergency, i.e., if any prisoner is in a critical stage, the gates are opened. Else they remain closed till 6:00am.

A canteen is also available for the prisoners where they can buy any item by giving coupons worth Rs.5, Rs.10, Rs.15, Rs.20 (Coupons worth Rs.1500 are provided to them every month). All prisoners have bank accounts. Half of their earnings are deposited in the bank and handed over to them only after they are released from the prison.

ABOUT THE PRISON:

The Prison has various divisions and it is split into Open-air and the inner circle. We were given details about the outer circle and informed about the importance of such a division. The prisoners have difference in payment in denominations of Rs.10, Rs.30 and Rs.50 respectively for the Under-Trial Prisoners, Prisoners and the Open-air prisoners.

The students were able to interact with the inmates of the jail from the outer circle as well as the Open-air Jail and many Under Trial Prisoners – which was the purpose of the visit. The prison's has got –

1. Watch towers – 7
2. 50 beds Hospital
3. DLSA Legal Clinic
4. Office Quarters
5. Capacity to hold 4,000 prisoners
6. Calling Facility and Meeting Areas for Families

All of these were shown to the members and the faculty so as to be able to understand the purpose of the same as well as the maintenance of the jail. The jailor as well as the advocates from the DLSA helped in the understanding of the psyche of the prisoners and that the prisoners are not looked at differently based on crime but are on the basis of their actions once they are in the jail. Through the visit the students learned in depth about the working of the jail and the treatment of the inmates with reference to the remuneration and the work that they are to do to keep themselves engaged.

There are different blocks where prisoners are divided into various blocks as per their behavior and various other parameter, they are named as follows: -

MANASA BLOCK

BRAHMAPUTRA BLOCK

KRISHNA BLOCK

GAUTHAMI BLOCK

SWARNAMUKHI BLOCK

EXPERIENECE:

Through this visit the members were able to understand that the jail and the members inside are not as brutal as one would think of and some of them truly do need help in terms of legal aid, as many of them come from poor backgrounds where sometimes their families do not support them and in other cases they are not financially sound enough to have a lawyer for themselves. The work done by the DLSA in this regard stood out, as the lawyers who accompanied the students were able to give them true insight into what it is like to work with such people and what it takes to be, as lawyers, surrounded by people who may or may not have committed a crime but need help in any shape or form. The visit was truly one of a kind that opened the students' minds to various things which are otherwise not given as much importance.

Republic Day Celebration – 26th January 2019

wisdom and threw light on his journey, ideal leadership skills, the importance of hard work and dedication and congratulated all the appointed members and wished them the very best for carrying out the duties and responsibilities vested in them. Lastly, Dr. Prageetha G Raju delivered the vote of thanks and wished all the luck for this council for achieving all the targets and goals set and for carrying out their duties and hoped that the college will reach greater heights. The program was concluded with the national anthem and with a photograph of the council with all the dignitaries.

REPORT ON THE WORKSHOP

“FACE THE BOOK WITHIN”

One day workshop titled “FACE THE BOOK WITHIN” on 5th January 2019 from 10 am to 5 pm was conducted by inviting the experts and trainers from the Teenage Foundation. The foundation help youngsters discover their inner potential, equip youngsters with tools and techniques required to maneuver through the tough adolescent years and afterward.

The workshop was a daylong workshop which adopted activity/games based approach to drive home the learning: the workshop focused on important youth issues like peer pressure, academic issues, cell phone use, and abuse and social networking- a double-edged sword which discussed in a group discussion session. We also conducted team building and value education games. The workshop also emphasized on Yoga for health, goal setting, how to wisely use technology and avoid the pitfalls in our lives and so on.

Only a total of 20 students were selected for the workshop.

CONTENT OF THE WORKSHOP

Introduction and communication skills – make the first lasting impression and be a winner

We started with an exercise in personality development. In life we are bound to meet numerous people and it is important to make a great first impression on them. We spent the first one hour of our workshop teaching youngsters how to introduce themselves to others, introducing two people to each other and the art of small talk. They were also given topics on which they need to speak impromptu for one minute thus underlining importance of good expression and speaking skills.

Yoga for New age Teens - for health and well being

Keeping in mind the new age computer generation and their lifestyle we designed a fitness program which includes warm up stretches, eye, neck and back exercises followed by spine strengthening Suryanamaskaras and then a cool down called the chair exercises. We suggested youngsters start off on Yoga which is in fact the secret of eternal youth. Practicing yoga can bring about immense benefits in both mental and physical health and be an insurance against mental and physical challenges for a life time. We introduced them to Suryanamaskaras (Sun salutations) a set of 12 exercises which have amazing benefits. These alternating backward and forward bending postures flex and stretch the spinal column through their maximum range giving a profound stretch to the whole body. In the long run these exercises strengthen the spine which ensures a strong and straight posture. This was considered a complete body workout. Experts say that doing 12 sets of Surya Namaskars translates into doing 144 powerful yoga poses in a span of 12 to 15 minutes. This set of exercise is so versatile that it can be used to achieve any goal from weight loss to body strengthening, to a long youthful healthy life. Each posture must be held with an appropriate breath in/out, which leads to detoxifying the organs through copious oxygenation and has a deeper relaxing effect. Ideally this must be done at dawn (daybreak).

Games and Processes - activities and tasks to inculcate values, team building and life planning

During the workshop we divided the youngsters into groups and made them play an interesting and innovative team game which simulates a real scenario, where a team has a common goal, a specified time limit to achieve it and competition from other groups. They have to cooperate, coordinate, put their heads together, strategize and do it. They learnt a lot in the process. They played goal setting games which illustrates the point that it is important to have a goal in life.

Group Discussions improves expression and builds confidence

We conducted group discussions amongst youngsters on important topics such as cyber bully, social networking addiction, cell phone use and abuse, peer pressure, academic pressure, sibling rivalry, teens and environment etc. etc. This helps them to articulate their thoughts as well as release pressure (they just speak out their mind and woes) most importantly it helps them open and builds confidence.

Dr Lalita Anand - FACE THE BOOK WITHIN...connecting the dots

The power point presentation which has some interesting videos and real life anecdotes connects the dots. Demystifies the intuition behind the games played, and discusses the following

- What are the Youth challenges?
- How to face it?
- Self-confidence, self- esteem and self-belief
- Appreciation and positive stroking
- Personality building based on values and courage
- Think out of the box

Dance breaking out of shyness and celebrating life (for therapeutic effects)

We concluded with a contemporary and popular dance session (Zumba /Shiamak Davar). The message behind this session is, “celebrate life, because we live only once” and also pick up any one creative art as a hobby for personality development (Music, art, designing, dance, any musical instrument etc.). This is also an exercise in conquering shyness, opening the person and building confidence.

“Report On Yoga Convention”

Date: 02/02/2019

A week programme on the yoga has been taken place in Symbiosis Law School, Hyderabad in the form of “Yoga Convention”. The said programme is motivated with the slogan of health, peace and spirit. Around 98 participants have been officially registered for the “Yoga Convention”. Many of them have been participated enthusiastically without registration. The programme was purely peace oriented. The major objective of the programme was to keep students mentally healthy and feet. Initially, the programme was introduced for the 2018 -2013 and 2017-2022 batches. Later on it has been opened for other batches too.

The Convention started from 28/1/2019 to 2/2/2019. Mr. Prashant Pandey a Yoga Teacher, therapist and astrologer have been called from the Symbiosis School of Sport Science, Symbiosis University, Hyderabad. He holds 3 sessions within a day throughout the week. Mr. Prashant Pandey holds total 18 different sessions during this august week. Almost 163 participants have been participated on different account (session wise) in yoga convention within this healthy week of SLSH. On his special request, the session was also opened for faculty members and non- teaching staff. Few faculty members have been actively participated in yoga sessions. The experience of Yoga Convention was realistic. The yoga sessions have been tremendously appreciated by the participants. However, the number of participation was comparatively less than the expectation. The three sessions from morning to evening have been arranged in such a way where students and teachers including non-teaching staff can participate in to session. The Suryanamaskar, Yogasans and Yognidra proved to be landmarks for yoga practice.

On the last day of the session Mr. Pankaj Umbarkar offered vote of thanks. He appreciated the efforts of Symbiosis School of Sport Sciences. He agreed that, without the Officiating Director, SLSH and Head and Faculty of SSSS, Pune it was not possible. Hence he said special thanks to Dr. Sukhvinder Singh Dari and Dr. Nayana Nimkar for the permission of the said programme. He said thanks to Mr. Prashant Pandey for his seniority and patience to make the programme successful. He also said thanks to participants who actively participated in the programme actively without bothering to say thanks to those non-participants de jure but not de facto. The yoga sessions proved more optimistic with due reason that, those who were interested, they have been identified in its first attempt. At the end he said thanks to administrator, teaching and non-teaching staff of Symbiosis Law School, Hyderabad. It has been agreed by all members of the convention that, the success of programme is not depend on the numbers of participants, but the number of attempts of the participants to carry the practice for long term. However, programme has been ended with the hope of more co-operations and more co-ordination in its next attempt.
