Programme Description:

The Training and Placement Cell at SLSH organized a workshop on “Key to success for Civil Service Exam” for candidates aspiring for a career in Civil Services after pursuing Law. The session was planned as part of skill development programs to explore career options for law students after law.

In this connection, Mr. Abhishek Tripathy IRS was invited as a Resource Person on 6th July, 2019 to conduct a Workshop on Key to Success for Civil Service Examinations. Participants were asked to answer a series of questions posed by the resource person followed by analysis of the same. The purpose was to explore the candidates' flair for civil services.

He began with stating the importance and background of the Civil Services examination and how to crack the same; asserted it as an alternative career option for civil service enthusiasts. He elaborated on various judicial decisions, past and present, where Civil Services has molded itself and motivated students to think out of the box and not stick to the general Corporate Sector.
