

SYMBIOSIS LAW SCHOOL, HYDERABAD

Symbiosis International (Deemed University)

(Established under Section 3 of the UGC Act, 1956)

॥ वसुधैव कुटुम्बकम् ॥

Re-accredited by NAAC with 'A' Grade (3.58/4) | Awarded Category - I by UGC

Founder: Prof. Dr. S. B. Mujumdar, M. Sc. Ph.D. (Awarded Padma Bhushan and Padma Shri by President of India)

ADR5
ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION SOCIETY

EVENT REPORT

WEBINAR ON 'FUNDAMENTALS OF MEDIATION'

INTRODUCTION

Alternative Dispute Resolution Society (ADR5) organised the first webinar on 'Fundamentals of Mediation' on 1st May, 2020 for the students of Symbiosis Law School, Hyderabad. ADR5 received a total number of 91 registrations for the webinar. Additionally, the webinar was attended by several faculty members of SLS-H as well.

OBJECTIVE OF THE WEBINAR

The webinar was conducted with the objective to enlighten the students about the fundamentals of mediation. The webinar focused around to address the complications and technicalities involved in the process of mediation in India. Further, the webinar aimed to foster awareness amongst the student community as to how Mediation law has developed in India.

KEY TAKEAWAYS FROM THE WEBINAR

The panellist leading the webinar was Mr. A.J. Jawad, Co-founder and Trustee of Foundation for Comprehensive Dispute Resolution (FCDR) and was moderated by Kanishka Mittal, Vice-President of ADRS. A few key takeaways from the webinar are mentioned hereinafter:

- Brief insight into the history of Mediation
- Emphasis upon the concept of Mediation in India with sufficient reliance on Section 89 of the Civil Procedure Code, 1908 and the landmark judgments of the Supreme Court of India.
- Discussed various types of Mediation in India and different styles of Mediators
- Outlined briefly the process involved of Mediation
- Enumerated upon the role of mediator and the necessary qualities of a mediator.
- Elaborated upon the enforcement of settlement agreements in India.
- Highlighted the problems faced due to lack of a legislation enforcing Mediation in India.
- Briefly touched upon the importance of the Singapore Convention on Mediation

CONCLUSION

The webinar was held successfully leaving the students with insightful information and helping them understand the intricacies involved in Mediation in India. The webinar concluded with the vote of thanks proposed by Ms Dhanya K A, Faculty In charge – ADRS.