Time: 10:00 - 11:00

NOTE : DO NOT WRITE ANYTHING ON THE QUESTION PAPER

PART II

Marks: 20

Instructions

- All questions are compulsory and each question carries 10 marks

Q1A. Analyse the ethical dilemma presented in Ursula K. Le Guin's The Ones Who Walk Away from Omelas, where the happiness of an entire city depends on the perpetual suffering of a single child. Critically examine this scenario in the light of Jeremy Bentham's utilitarian theory and Immanuel Kant's deontological ethics, and discuss what, in your opinion, constitutes the morally right course of action. (CO2)

OR

Q1B. Examine the entrepreneurial journey and struggles of Dhirubhai Ambani, the founder of Reliance Industries, who rose from modest beginnings to build one of India's largest conglomerates. Critically analyze his approach and success in the context of John Rawls' theory of distributive justice and Robert Nozick's criticisms of distributive justice, and discuss whether his achievements reflect fairness, meritocracy, or an exception to principles of social equality. (CO2)

Q2A. Critically analyze the clash between the Executive and the Judiciary in India concerning the appointment of Supreme Court judges, with reference to the National Judicial Appointments Commission (NJAC) versus the Collegium System. Evaluate the strengths and weaknesses of both systems, and justify which system, in your opinion, is more appropriate for ensuring judicial independence and accountability. (CO4)

OR

Q2B. Discuss John Austin's theory that punishment is sufficient to regulate human conduct, emphasising his concept of law as the command of the sovereign backed by sanctions. Critically examine the major criticisms of Austin's theory by various jurists, and, in light of these debates, write the definitions of law provided by different jurists and provide your own reasoned definition of law. (CO4)
